

The Windham LIST and State Representative Susan Johnson cordially invite you to:

A Regional Community Forum and Discussion Focused on the Intersection of Education and Juvenile Justice

Monday September 20, 2010

5:30 snacks / refreshments

6:00 program

Windham High School auditorium

355 High Street

Join us for a panel discussion followed by an hour of open Q&A

Panel will feature experts from:

Connecticut Voices for Children

Center for Children's Advocacy

Connecticut School Resource Officer Association

Connecticut Department of Education

And be moderated by the Connecticut Juvenile Justice Alliance

Discussion Topics will Include:

*School-based arrests and the need for sound data

*School Resource Officers

*Alternatives to exclusionary discipline (suspension, expulsion, school "push-out")

*School climate: making kids physically, emotionally, and intellectually safe

RSVP to Windham Youth Services

(860) 423-4534 ext. 338 or email patricia.calvo@wrccinc.org

All are welcome!